The Pennsylvania Electoral Ticket.

> The withdrawal of the "straight Douglas ticket" in Pennsylvania, has occasioned some misapprehension in the minds of those who are not familiar with the movements of the Democracy of that State with reference to the Presidential nominations.—News of yesterday.

Such is the commencement of the leading editorial article in the News of yesterday. The "withdrawal" of the Douglas electoral ticket in the Keystone State is an awkward fact to explain away; but the News attempts it, nevertheless. After conceding that there are "ten Breckinridge men" on the Democratic electoral ticket, as it now stands, the News claims, on the authority of the New York Journal of Commerce, (a Breckinridge organ) that these electors, if chosen by the people, will all vote for DOUGLAS.

On the other hand, FORNEY'S Press, a zealous DOUGLAS paper, insists that the withdrawal of the straight DOUGLAS electoral ticket, by the DOUGLAS Central Committee of Pennsylvania, is a mistake. It is an abandonment of principles, and cannot prevent LINCOLN carrying the State, which event is true as fate.

We rather think that Mr. FORNEY knows more about Pennsylvania, than either the Milwaukee News, or the New York Journal of Commerce. That Pennsylvania will vote for LINCOLN no sane man doubts. The "straight DOUGLAS ticket" was withdrawn, to "save appearances." The friends of the Illinois Senator did not wish the country to see how weak he is in the Keystone State.

The Next Congress.

The New York Evening Post classifies the members of Congress already elected, and to be elected, leaving out New York, as 89 LINCOLN, 53 BRECKINRIDGE, 37 BELL and 25 DOUGLAS. It sets down the New York districts as 21 certain for LINCOLN, 10 probable for him, and 2 only, the 3d and 4th districts, Democratic. In regard to what has been said relative to Congress being opposed to LINCOLN'S administration, the Post says:

> "No Congress can resist the unmistakable demonstration of public sentiment, which is to be made in favor of Republican principles at this election; and were there forty majority against Lincoln at the opening of the next Congress, he would greatly disappoint his friends if his course as President did not inspire such confidence as to command for his measures all necessary support. On the Slavery question his Administration will probably have no affirmative policy, except to admit Kansas, and to that there can be no very serious opposition.
> Upon the affirmative measures of the new President, we will have no fear of any compact and permanent opposition from his present opponents, who will have more than enough to do to settle their own controversies. Should Mr. Lincoln conduct his Administration as every Republican believes he will, upon national and Republican principles, he will have all the co-operation from Congress that he requires; if he does not, of course it is better that his party should be in the minority in the House. But if he does not have a working majority of twenty members at least before the close of his first Congress, we shall be more disappointed than we should be by his defeat in November, and his election we consider certain enough for all practical purposes."

"THE SIXTH OF NOVEMBER—THE STATE OF NEW YORK."—The N. Y. Herald chief "fusion" organ, in its issue of Monday last, has a long article, under the above head, upon the prospect of the campaign. We copy, as most significant, the final paragraph:

> "We conclude for the present, that thro' the intrigues and manipulations of the Albany Regency at Albany, at Syracuse, at Charleston and at Baltimore, the way has been opened so invitingly in New York, on the Presidential issue, that Lincoln will walk over the course; and secondly, that Tammany Hall has done everything within her power to give at least half the Congressmen from this island to the Republican party."

S. B. BERRY, the well-known undertaker at Chicago, who was so active in the identification of bodies by the Lady Elgin disaster, has fallen a victim to disease induced by over exertion and excitement, connected with his duties there. He died on Thursday.

THE ELGIN DISASTER—MORE BODIES.—Yesterday morning, two bodies of females were found at Evanston, supposed to be relics of the Lady Elgin disaster. They were each from five feet two to five feet four inches in height. One of them had on a plain cotton skirt and a portion of a chemise. On the fingers of the left hand were several diamond rings. Upper teeth all gone, as if they had been a false set and had been lost out.

The other had on a hoop skirt, a portion of striped silk waist, no stockings or shoes. Five rings on fingers, a locket, two plain gold rings and one chased. Had five upper teeth on a gold plate, riveted in the old fashioned manner.

Justice G. M. Huntoon held an inquest on the bodies. Further information may be obtained by addressing "G. M. Huntoon, Evanston, Ill."

P. S.—Since writing the above, we have been informed that the body with the diamond rings upon the fingers, is undoubtedly Mrs. Lumsden, wife of Col. Lumsden. The other is supposed to be Mrs. Grath.

The body of a man about five feet eight inches in eight, clad in military pantaloons, came ashore yesterday morning at Michigan City.

The remains of the little son of Jonathan E. Arnold, of Milwaukee, lost on the Lady Elgin, and recovered at Michigan City, were interred at Milwaukee yesterday. The body No. 67 was identified as that of a band on board the ill-fated steamer, and disinterred at Rose Hill yesterday, to be sent to Erie, Pa., last night.—Chicago Jour., Oct. 25.

The Deputation at Chicago and Milwaukee.

We are gratified to see, by our letter from Chicago, that the merchants of that city comprehend the whole subject of the relations of that city as the representative of the producing west; to this city as the representative of the manufacturing east. Those relations should—as the admirable resolutions and speech of Mr. Wright say, in the name of the Chicago Board of Trade—always be direct, and the fullest information respecting each other's business and resources should be promptly communicated. There is a better appreciation of this truth on their part than we had expected to see; we beg their pardon for saying it; better, because it is so common to find misapprehension that it is half a surprise to find none. The extent of the natural trade falling to us from that section can only be fully known by them, however, when they have in person visited the vast and varied manufactures which occupy a large share of our six hundred thousand people, and when they get the evidence of their own eyes that, of elegant, as well as of simply useful goods, this city produces more than any other single city of the world, and that its elegant fabrics usually bear in their own shops the Paris trade mark.

The kindly and spirited manner in which the people of each of the three great cities already visited by this deputation receive both the guests personally, and the honor and interests of Philadelphia, is beyond all praise. It is recognized and conceded that we have something to say to them, and that it is their interest and their greatest pleasure to respond. All that this city has to say may not find expression in words from our deputation, but it is evident that in this case a few words carry a good deal of weight with them, and that it is not difficult for the clearsighted merchants of those lake cities to comprehend the whole case. For this readiness, frankness and courtesy in attributing to us our full merit, they have our heartfelt thanks.

The delegation made a very gratifying visit to Milwaukee, on Monday, at the invitation of the Board of Trade of that city, in all that concerned which visit they were the guests of very liberal hands. Returning to Chicago, they were entertained on Monday night to a sumptuous dinner, the full details of which are not yet at hand. From Chicago they went, on Tuesday, to Quincy, Ill., on their route to St. Joseph, Missouri, if the original programme of the excursion was adhered to.—Phil. Amer., Oct. 24.

Mississippi High Court of Errors and Appeals.

State vs. John Bell, Indictment for Treason.—Jury, the people of the State; Prosecuting Attorney the Attorney General of the State. At the regular session, 1860, of the Mississippi High Court of Errors and Appeals, the case of the State vs. John Bell, indicted for high treason, was called by the Attorney General. Mr. Bell himself was the first and only witness put upon the stand.

Attorney. Mr. Bell, ought slavery to be abolished in the District of Columbia?

Bell. Tinkle, tinkle, tinkle.

Attorney. Mr. Bell, ought the slave trade between the States to be abolished?

Bell. Tinkle, tinkle, tinkle.

Attorney. Are you in favor of extension of slavery into any of the common Territories now belonging to the United States?

Bell. Tinkle, tinkle, tinkle.

Attorney. Would you vote for the protection of slavery in any of the Territories?

Bell. Tinkle, tinkle, tinkle.

Attorney. Are you in favor of the acquisition of Territory adapted to slave labor.

Bell. Tinkle, tinkle, tinkle.

Attorney. Are you in favor of reopening the African slave trade?

Bell. Tinkle, tinkle, tinkle.

Attorney. In the event of Lincoln's election, are you in favor of submission to his inauguration?

Bell. Tinkle, tinkle, tinkle.

Attorney. If Lincoln is elected and wields the whole power and patronage of the Government against the institution of slavery in the South, and stimulates John Brown invasions, and the inciting of servile insurrections, would you be in favor of resistance?

Bell. Tinkle, tinkle, tinkle.

Attorney. Are you in favor of building the Pacific Railroad by the General Government?

Bell. Tinkle, tinkle, tinkle.

Attorney. Are you in favor of improvements in the States, rivers and harbors, by appropriations from the Federal treasury?

Bell. Tinkle, tinkle, tinkle.

Attorney. You can stand aside, sir.—May it please the Court, I submit the case without argument.

NOTE.—The jury have not yet rendered their verdict, but it is made up. The jury stands forty-five thousand for conviction, and fifteen thousand for acquittal—being a majority of thirty thousand against Mr. Bell.

ONE OF THE JURY.

THE TEN MILLION LOAN.—The bids for the ten million loan, under the act of Congress of the 22d of June, which were opened at Washington yesterday, demonstrate that confidence in the stability of the government is in no degree impaired by the recent clamors of political alarmists.

This is a five per cent. loan, to provide for the redemption of outstanding Treasury notes. The stock is reimbursable ten years from the 1st of January next, and bears five per cent. interest, payable semi-annually. Bids were not accepted if below par, nor in fractions of a thousand dollars, nor if the proposal was unaccompanied by a certificate of deposit of 1 per cent of the amount bid.

The proposals for this loan were advertised by the Treasury Department on the 18th of September, before any of the Northern State elections had taken place which render Mr. Lincoln's election so imminent. The Maine election occurred two days afterwards; then followed the decisive Republican triumphs in Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio in October; and now in the fate of the result which these elections foreshadow, the whole loan is promptly taken at a fair premium. This shows that sharp-sighted business men attach no importance to these dismal vaticinations of political prophets who have electioneering ends to serve by their predictions.

BODIES OF MRS. LUMSDEN AND MRS. GARTH RECOVERED.—Wednesday morning two bodies were taken from the Lake at Evanston, which have since been identified as the bodies of the wife of Col. Lumsden, and of Mrs. Garth. Each of these bodies was from five feet two inches to five feet four inches high. The one identified as the body of Mrs. Lumsden had on only a portion of a chemise, and a plain cotton skirt. On the fingers of the left hand were several diamond rings. Here upper teeth were all gone, as if they had been a false set, and had fallen out. The body recognized as that of Mrs. Garth had on a hoop skirt, a portion of a striped silk waist, no stockings or shoes.—She had five rings on her fingers, and a locket, and had five upper teeth on a gold plate. These bodies will be taken care of until the friends of the deceased can be communicated with.—Chicago Democart, of yesterday.

Third Ward Republicans, Attention!

The Republicans of the Third Ward are earnestly requested to meet at Sivyer's Hall at 7 1-2 o'clock Monday evening, Oct. 29th. Important business is to be transacted, and some good speaking is expected.

Come, every man! All the members of the Welch and Third Ward Clubs are particularly requested to be present.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE.

Eighth Ward.

There will be a Republican meeting at Julius Tittel's Saloon, in the 8th Ward, this Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock. There will be speaking in English and German. Republicans, all attend!

"THE CHRONICLES."—Elsewhere will be found an advertisement of the forthcoming Milwaukee book. The subscriptions are coming in steadily. Every Milwaukee man should take a copy, and to secure one should subscribe at once, as the edition will be limited to the number of subscribers.

THE SCANDINAVIAN REPUBLICAN CLUB is doing a good work; meets twice a week, Monday and Thursday. Gen. PREUTGER, of Waupaca, addressed the Club last night for more than two hours, in a most able exposition of the party questions of the age.—He had, the previous evening, participated in our procession. His arguments, based upon historical facts, went to prove that the founders of our Constitution were in favor of freedom and against slavery. He is a deep thinker and has evidently examined the questions at issue with the closest scrutiny. Among other points he holds, that the third paragraph of Sec. 2, Article 1, of the Constitution, "No person held to service, &c.," has no relation whatever to "slaves," but to poor white laborers, of European birth, who, having contracted themselves out to pay their passage, &c., should escape from one State to another. And from the fact that the word "servitude" on motion of MADISON was stricken out during the discussion, and the word "service" substituted, he does not hold the Constitutionality of the Fugitive Slave Law in very great respect. The Gen. left last night for his home. But he will be out again among the people, and we bespeak for him full audiences.

WE ARE PLEASED to see that the Republicans of the Fourth Ward, in the City of Milwaukee have nominated C. Caverno, Esq., for the Assembly. Mr. C. is a lawyer of more than ordinary talent; and by close application to business he has succeeded in earning a reputation which is gaining every day. The people of Milwaukee may find older men, with more experience, but they cannot find any with better judgment, or one with more honesty of purpose than Chas. Caverno. We hope he will be elected.—Oconto Pioneer.

The same here. Mr. CAVERNO is all that the Pioneer says and deserves, and we do not doubt that he will recieve the vote of every Republican Elector in the Fourth Ward.

THE "UNION" TICKET.—We publish elsewhere the proceedings of the "Union" party in this city. They have made up a new ticket; taking, however, a few of "the regular democratic" nominees. The Union men, Know-Nothings and dissatisfied Democrats, generally, are confidently appealed to, to vote for this third ticket. REPUBLICANS, of course, will stand, by sustain, and elect their own candidates.

ATTENTION is directed to the numerous valurable premiums offered by the publisher of that long known and reliable journal, the American Agriculturist. The particulars are given in our advertising columns. The "baker's dozen" will interest those ready to subscribe now.

An Explanation of Mr. Lockwood's Conduct.

The People's Press recently saw fit to trump up a frivolous pack of charges against Councillor LOCKWOOD, all of which charges,—if they can be called such—vanish into thin air when one attempts to examine them, which we propose to do:

1st. It appears that KEELMAN got orders twice, through mistake, but on being notified of it immediately corrected it—see his statement.

2d. The price of 8 cents per foot was paid RYLEY for taking up an old cross walk on the intersection of Prospect and Franklin streets, and relaying it with new plank, a price thought to be low, and which was paid by other Wards for similar work; taking the discount on city orders, left the man about 5c per foot. JOHN HORAN testified before the committee, that it was worth 1c per foot, amounting to $5,00. Mr. HORAN was prejudiced against LOCKWOOD because he would not allow the contract to be extended for the planking of sidewalks on Brady St., made in 1858, as Brady street was only 33 feet wide and some 10 feet deep, and only graded in sections, it being impossible for any body to travel through it.

3d. Bids were received for the grading of the Public Square, as stated, at from 1 2c to 5c per yard. It is well known by the Controller, and others, that where there is competition a large number of bids are put in at a price the parties do not intend to do the work at, but expect to sell out if the contract is awarded to them. In this case, all of the parties bidding refused to sign a contract, and with the consent of the Controller the work was given to PETER BRADLEY at 5c per yard, which figure was considered low, as the usual price for such work ranged from 12 1-2 to 20c per yard,—see BRADLEY'S testimony.

4th. The committee say that there is some doubt of this work being done; if it was done, that, in their opinion, it was not worth over $25. The committee knew that the work was done, if not they could have informed themselves of the fact.

5th. The amount for lumber and nails, we presume, is correct, viz: $375 57. The committee state that they did inquire into that part of the account. Why did they not do their duty? Mr LOCKWOOD has frequently insisted on the most rigid scrutiny; whatever the amount is, it has all been used for the benefit of the Ward, and has not been put into the pockets of contractors or of himself.

6th. There is no doubt but that a large amount was paid out for the repairs of wells, &c., as there seemed to be an organized force in the Ward to commit damages on wells by cutting ropes, smashing buckets and throwing nuisances in wells as soon as they were repaired. The evil became so great that Mr. LOCKWOOD introduced the following resolution in the Board of Councillors, in order to make the people watch these depradators, thus giving them to understand that unless they did so, they could not have water.

Councillor LOCKWOOD offered the following resolution:

> Resolved, That no bill for the repairing or cleaning of wells in the First Ward, accruing after the date of the passage of this resolution, be allowed, and the Comptroller is requested not to countersign any bills for the above purposes as above stated.

Adopted.

7th and 8th. The plan of hiring a man to spread and keep count of gravel, was generally adopted in the different wards, on account of the impossibility of the city surveyor being able to estimate the quantities when a load was deposited here and there. There can be no doubt that the Ward made more by a correct account, than the amount paid for such services. Why did not the committee report the fact that JOHN MITCHELL received, from the Fourth Ward, $50 per month (amounting to $200) for keeping count of gravel, while he was receiving pay as policeman, without performing the duties of policeman.

9th. It is well known that the First Ward could get nothing done in improvements without the greatest difficulty, as the Comptroller opposed everything they wanted; the prices paid for sewers were as low as they could be done for, and the most of it was absolutely necessary. A large item in this account was for the making and completing of the lower end of Division street; all having the sanction of Comptroller, who was very careful about First Ward matters.

10th, 11th and 12th. The community are familiar with the circumstances connected with the GARDINER order of $50 which was allowed him for writing up the First Ward books for the year 1858, left by JACKSON HADLEY; he claimed $100. As to eleven and twelve charging the Ward $200 for clerk hire of Street Commissioners, that amount has always been allowed. Mr. L. only received the amount of $90 out of the $200, although he always filled out the Street Commissioners certificates himself. Below will be found a certified copy of the account allowed by the Common Council.

I hereby certify that the endorsements on the back of the same is a true copy of an account on file in the office of the Clerk of the city of Milwaukee.
ALEX. BOLTON,
Deputy City Clerk.
Milwaukee, August 15, 1860.

Why did not the Committee take notice of the Seventh Ward account for serving of clerk hire, &c.; they merely give the amount received by Mr. NOYES, in this wise, viz: $535 paid for clerk hire, rent of office and stationery, instead of the amount of $200 for the First Ward and only $90 paid to Mr. L. Very impartial.

The old committee reported nothing but such things as came before them, or as they found out by examination and testimony.—Councillor JOHNSON was a member of that committee for some three or four weeks, and was requested by Mr. L. to call witnesses in reference to charges made against him, but he neglected to do so, and finally concluded that prudence was the better part of valor, and ingloriously retired from the committee. Mr. NOYES remained on the committee up to the time it was discharged; why did he not attend to these matters and bring them to the attention of the Council, if anything was wrong?

The committee proceed in their report to give the amount expended in the 1st Ward, for 1859, as follows: $6,965.54, out of which deduct for amount paid for bills contracted for 1858, (under JACKSON HADLEY'S administration,) say, $2,521.79, leaving a total balance of $4,435.75 as expended in 1859—a smaller amount than was ever expended before since it became a Ward. The following are the amounts paid out in the several years, viz: 1859 — $9,082 37; amount for 1858 $6,007.18; for 1859, as per report of committee, $4,435.75. Does this look like extravagance under Mr. L.'s administration? And here, the committee remark, they are astonished that such an amount of money should be expended, (say $4,435.75,) when there were but three contracts on file in the Comptroller's office for the year 1859; at the same time there were twenty-five contracts on file, as will be seen by the following certificate from the Comptroller:

CITY COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, }
MILWAUKEE, Sept. 6, '60. }

At the request of Mr. John Lockwood, Councillor of the 1st Ward, I do hereby certify that there are twenty-five contracts for work to be performed in the First Ward, and executed during the fiscal year 1859, on file in this office.

FRED. KUEHN,
Comptroller.

In order to show the very impartial manner in which the committees have performed their duties, we would refer to the 7th Ward report, where, if corruption existed anywhere, it was there—after giving the amount expended—say $13,911.78—(Comptroller's amount $15,324.91)—they say that the examination into ward matters more properly belongs to the Aldermen and Councillors of the wards, and they will therefore leave it for the Council to dispose of as they see fit. The fact is the committee had spent their whole force in the First Ward, as they examined twenty-two witnesses there, and only five witnesses in the balance of the eight wards.

When the report of the committee is published, with the evidence, we propose to take the whole thing up and sift it out.

Temperance and Terpsichore—"A Father" Objects.

MR. EDITOR:—I am a Good Templar. I appreciate the Order, and the principles advocated and advanced by it. I think I have contributed as much as any in sustaining it. I now beg leave to make a protest through the public press. The weekly meetings which are held by the various Lodges in this city, hitherto have been conducive of morality and sociality, although pleasure has been subsidized to the cause of Temperance and Humanity. My daughter has attended the meetings regularly. Now, it has become customary for one or two of the largest lodges to close their meetings with a dance, at which the doors are thrown open and outsiders admitted. One lodge keeps a corps of musicians especially for this purpose. To this I object, and as private objections have no weight, I beg leave to object publicly. The young ladies who attend these sessions may now be understood as attending public dances, subject to new relationship with strangers, liable to the contact which parents who are scrupulous generally condemn, and contract habits and tastes which, perhaps, were never taken into consideration when the Order was started. As I can not always accompany my daughter, she frequently goes there in the company of other young ladies, and they stay out until a very late hour, coming home flushed with an excitement that never proceeded from the calm and humane investigation of topics connected with the Temperance Cause. I do not object to dancing, but I do seriously object to my daughter attending a weekly "shindy" under the disguise of another name, and keeping late hours, and falling into a regular habit all under the cloak of temperance. I anticipate your reply: "Why don't I keep my daughter at home?" Exactly, and I do, now; but as several of my friends have got into the same fix, and I have an honest interest in the welfare of the Order, I have thought that a little publicity would bring out the matter fairly, and perhaps obviate what I esteem a great objection. With this view you will please publish my ideas and credit them to

A FATHER.

Tergiversation.

MISTAKEN.—The Enquirer congratulates us on our return home to our editorial duties, but says:

> "We did not exactly like the style in which Charley backed out of the discussion with the Sentinel man, but he's a good fellow, nevertheless, and being young, may yet redeem himself."

It's all a mistake. We didn't "back out"—we slid out at the earnest solicitation of the Local of the Sentinel, who paid half our expenses down East, in order to get rid of us, and avoid the discussion. Will the Enquirer do us and the Sentinel man justice by retracting the statement.—Charley Wright of the News.

This is a trifle cooler than was expected from CHARLES WRIGHT. Not content with borrowing money from us to enable him to go East, he now has the audacity to insinuate that we gave him the funds to get rid of him. Mr. WRIGHT is not worthy our attention after this contemptible trick; but WRIGHT or wrong, if he will pay us back the borrowed money, we will consent to test our relative positions by an appeal to the public from the door step of the Juneau Bank, on condition that no placards shall be used and no appeal shall be made to the Municipal Court.

Republican Meeting in the Town of Milwaukee.

A Republican meeting was held at Kopp's House, in the town of Milwaukee, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 23d, when a respectable number of honest German farmers of the township were present. Mr. EVARTS, of Milwaukee, presided, and introduced JOHN B. D. COGSWELL and I. NEUSTADTL, of Milwaukee City, who spoke upon the Homestead Bill, the Tariff question, and County affairs.

The farmers of Milwaukee township are disposed to give a strong vote to the Republican County ticket.

EDITORS OF SENTINEL:—Permit me to call the attention of the public to a letter that appeared in the SENTINEL, Oct. 23d, 1860, under the title of "Imposition." The author has accused a Christian Church in the City of Milwaukee of acting deceitfully and dishonestly towards the public by assuming a name that does not belong to them. I should like to call the attention of those that know and understand anything about church government, whether this church that has been accused so shamefully, is guilty of any such deeds. Gentlemen, be your own judges. If your readers will take the trouble to examine the "Confession of Faith," they will be at once convinced that our doctrine is wholly Calvinistic, exactly the same as the Presbyterians, and that our mode of government is also Presbytery; because every church that belongs to the body is under the authority of the Presbyterian, or as our Welsh friends term it, "The Association." The Church has been accused of assuming a name that does not belong to it; but surely, they can assume this name without being accused of TRICKERY, dishonesty, and fraudulency, while they are wholly Presbyterian in their Church government, and have done all in their power to cancel the remaining debt on their Church edifice.

The position that Mr. WILLIAMS has taken is not very desirable, but was done, according to his own acknowledgement, to resent a bitter feeling that he had towards some of the members of this accused church. The writer of this letter asked him what was his object in accusing the church in such a manner; his reply was as follows:—"That he made a proposition to some of the members of the accused church, and if they would comply with his demands that he would never interfere with them hereafter, but as they refused to comply, he said he would never let them alone."

Our reasons for adopting the word "Presbyterian" on our ticket are as follows:

1st. That in reality we are Presbyterians.

2d. That the word "Calvinistic Methodist" does not denote our mode of government, to those that are not acquainted with our body.

3d. That our Association in Wales and in this country have made some movements towards adopting the name wholly and not partly.

4th. That our body in Wales holds a sociable Union with the Presbyterians both in Scotland and England.

I did not wish to appear in this controversy, but I was compelled to, inasmuch as Mr. WILLIAMS made an unjust attack on our church. I hope the public will examine both sides of the question at issue and decide for themselves.

THOMAS J. RICE.

DEDICATION OF THE LIGHT GUARD ARMORY.—On Tuesday evening next, the Milwaukee Light Guard propose to dedicate their elegant new armory with a ball, the first of a series to be given the coming winter. The new armory is a splendid room, well supplied with ante-chambers, supper rooms, and all that is requisite for the entertainment of a large and brilliant party.

The opening party will be select, and the members of the company will issue complimentary tickets to a limited number of their friends. The music will be furnished by ABBOTT & DICKINSON'S celebrated Harp Band, and everything promises a brilliant party and an appropriate dedication of the Armory of the Light Guard. As this is the prelude to a series of sociables, every effort will be made to make it a pleasant, select and highly interesting affair. The company is fast gaining strength in numbers and proficiency in drill, and our citizens will, we feel confident, be glad to learn that a series of sociables have been determined upon, and will await with no little anxiety their dedication drill.

NEW GLUE.—We advertise to-day a new style of glue, which must be needed in every house. This is reported to be the identical glue with which the man glued his dog together after he (the dog—not the man!) had split himself in two halves by running against a sharp post while in pursuit of a rabbit. It is related of this unfortunate dog that he was stuck together with two legs up and down, and remained so for the rest of his life; albeit he was a more durable dog after than before this slight accident, because while he was running on two legs the other two were resting, and he had only to flop over on the rested legs and go ahead, afresh. This only shows that care should be taken in sticking things together, when a you have a good glue to work with.—Zanesville Aurora, Nov. 25, 1859.

WORK YET TO BE DONE.

The certainty of success in the coming Presidential election, instead of lulling our friends into dangerous security, should stimulate them to redoubled efforts for the good cause. We must not be satisfied with a partial victory. We cannot afford to risk a possible defeat. There is no doubt that, with a full and fair vote, WISCONSIN will give a larger majority for LINCOLN, than it did for FREMONT. Not only this, but it is in our power to carry all three Congressional Districts and a large majority in the next Legislature, which is to elect a United States Senator. But little can be accomplished, in the few days yet to intervene before election, by public speaking, or the circulation of documents. Almost every voter has, by this time, made up his mind as to whom he will support. What remains for our Republican friends everywhere to do, is, to see that their entire force is brought to the polls on Election Day; and to guard the ballot-boxes, resolutely and vigilantly, against any attempted frauds.

Quiet, thorough, untiring work is needed to secure a full vote. Even at Presidential elections hundreds of men are so much engrossed with business cares and occupations, that they forget, or neglect to come to the polls. Let our Republican Committees, in every Town and School District, see to it that there are no men missing on their several roll calls, upon the 6th of November. Let competent challengers be selected, for every poll, to keep out illegal votes. Let all propositions to "trade" one candidate for another, be discountenanced and denounced. Let not the temptation of securing some petty local office induce any Republican to swerve from the path of duty. Let every Republican vote be cast, unbroken, for the entire Republican ticket. Stand by the good cause. Sustain the Republican nominations. Be early, active and vigilant at the polls. Make sure that no stragglers are left by the wayside. Take care that the honest voice of the people is not overborne by violence or fraud. There are now but nine working days left. Let not these precious hours pass unimproved. The political heavens are full of happy auguries.—The rosy dawn of a great triumph already gladdens the land. Its full, glorious sunshine will beam upon us on the sixth of November. On, then, friends! to the contest and to Victory!

A LINCOLN ELECTOR DENOUNCES THE FOREIGN "CATTLE,"

Germans, Irish, Norwegians, Scotch, &c—Read and Reflect.

"The following extract from a speech recently delivered by John W. Wilson, a Lincoln elector in Indiana, shows the cloven foot of black Republicanism so plainly, that we publish it for the benefit of those concerned."

With the above introduction, the Democratic Press of Fond du Lac, in its issue of Wednesday last, publishes a string of abusive epithets against foreigners, and charges them to Mr. J. W. WILSON. The whole thing is an out and out FORGERY. We exposed it a week ago, and the Madison Patriot, though without the manliness to correct, has at last been shamed into dropping the story. But its Fond du Lac yoke-fellow revives it. There is no LINCOLN elector in Indiana, by the name of WILSON. The extract which the Press publishes "from a speech recently delivered by him," went the rounds of the Democratic papers in 1856, four years ago! Mr. JOHN W. WILSON branded it as a villainous forgery THEN, and has again and again nailed the base coin to the counter. Sham Democracy must be hard pushed for arguments when it revamps the falsehoods and forgeries of 1856, for present use. But these desperate tactics will avail them nothing. Their doom is sealed. Certain defeat awaits them. They have been tried and found wanting. The whole country is clamorous for a CHANGE.

THE VOTE OF PENNSYLVANIA.—The total vote of the State in 1856 and 1860 was as follows:

For Buchanan (Democrat)	230,710
For Fremont (Republican)	147,510
For Fillmore (American)	82,175
Total	460,395
Aggregate vote, 1860	492,708
Increase	32,313

CURTIN's majority in the State is 32,084, nearly the entire amount of the increase.—But further:

Buchanan had	230,710
Foster had	230,312
Foster falls short of Buchanan	398
Fremont and Fillmore had	229,685
Curtin has	261,896
Curtin gains over Fillmore and Fremont	32,211

The following was the aggregate vote on the Congressional ticket at the late election:

Republican	261,542
Democratic	211,904
Republican majority	49,638

It is in view of this vote that some of the Democratic papers still pretend to believe that Pennsylvania will not vote for LINCOLN next month!

OCONTO COUNTY.—The Republicans of Oconto have nominated the following ticket:

For Treasurer—A. W. McClellan.
For Clerk of the Board—William Brunquest.
For Register of Deeds—A. C. Brown.
For District Attorney—John I. McClellan.
For Surveyor—H. M. Royce.

The Oconto Pioneer endorses the nominations as eminently "sound," and call upon the Republicans of the county to give them a hearty and united support.

The Campaign in Outagamie County.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

APPLETON, Oct. 24th, '60.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Still the ball continues to roll on in the Fox River valley.—This afternoon BRADFORD RIXFORD, of Oshkosh, spoke to the people of this city and vicinity. He made an excellent speech, and one that will have a bearing the sixth of November. Mr. RIXFORD, as many of your readers are aware, is an eloquent and forcible speaker, and a fit man to traverse this State, or any other, and proclaim Republican principles. The words that fell from his lips were as chunks of lead propelled by powder, to the Democrats, and not a few were heard to say, that he showed no mercy to "us Democrats;" and we incline to the opinion that they were about right. He by no means used language insulting to the opposition, but presented truths in a manner that was almost unmerciful, notwithstanding they should have been uttered, as there are but few instances where facts should be withheld.

Mr. RIXFORD was followed by Governor RANDALL, who made a speech of about half an hour's length, which abounded with good sound reasoning, and promising the audience that he would address them in the evening. The meeting was adjourned to meet at eight o'clock.

At seven o'clock the Wide Awakes appeared with their torches, about two hundred in number, and paraded about the city on several of the principal streets, and then marched to the "National Hotel," and escorted the Governor to ADKIN's Hall, where he was to speak. The Hall, capable of accommodating five hundred, was filled to overflowing, and more than two hundred, who were anxious to hear the Governor, were prevented a chance to even stand up in the Hall. Mr. RANDALL gave our citizens one of his witty and forcible arguments, which seemed to give entire satisfaction to those of his own party belief, and extremely bitter doses to the Democracy.

The Republican County Convention was held here to-day. R. R. BATEMAN, a fit man for the position, was put in nomination for member of Assembly, and the remainder of the ticket is composed of good, honest, hard-working men. We have hopes of electing the entire ticket, and if not all, we are determined to elect several of them.

Be patient until after the 6th of November, when you can listen to a goodly report from the Fox River Valley, in spite of the combined forces of the unterrified.

Yours, TRUTH.

STREET RAILROADS.—The number of miles of Passenger Railroad in the city of Philadelphia is 154 7 8, owned by eighteen companies. The capital represented is $8,500,000. The number of cars running 449, employing 2,731 horses.

The rapid increase of city passenger rail roads is at present one of the most distinguished features of the age. Four years ago there was not a mile of this description of railway out of New York. At present all the principal cities of the United States, have this convenient and rapid mode of conveyance, and the American innovation has now reached the metropolis of the British Empire, from which it will doubtless spread over all the cities of Europe.

Our Philadelphia visitors, last Monday, were surprised at many things they saw in the West, but at none more than finding several miles of Street Railroad built and in operation in Milwaukee.

Disunionism Repudiated by the South—Suggestive Article.

The Memphis Enquirer, edited by Solon Borland, formerly U. S. Senator from Arkansas, has the following suggestive article:

"Some short time since, we were somewhat apprehensive that the spirit of disunion was more general among our Southern friends, of the Breckinridge school, than we now find it to be. We feared that cool and dispassionate heads would be drawn into it; and that the mere announcement of Lincoln's election, would be the signal for a general movement among four or five of the more ultra Southern States. That fear has vanished; and we now are fully convinced that those hot headed disunionists are utterly powerless for evil.

Public sentiment is so decidedly against them, that there can be no such thing as mistaking it, and the true friends of Breckinridge are now endeavoring to put down all appearance of it.

Senator Wigfall lately spoke in Virginia and Maryland; and we learn, from our exchanges, that his disunion sentiments were so odious as to induce Mr. Pratt, and other speakers of the same wing of the Democracy, to disown them, from the same State and the same occasion.

Governor Pettus, of Miss., seems prudently and wisely to have abandoned all idea of secession or disunion; and talks more sensibly about encouraging Southern independence by levying a State tax on all goods manufactured at the North and brought into the state of Mississippi for sale.

There is something tangible, practical, and, apparently, remedial in this scheme, which we are not prepared to deny. We allude to it, however, only to show that even in Mississippi secession will not be attempted by its chief magistrate, who is regarded as extreme in his opinion. The idea is daily gaining strength, among the fire-eaters themselves, that they are more interested in remaining in the Union than they at first supposed; and the country will be spared the evils that many apprehended but a few weeks ago.

They begin to look the thing full in the face; and the dark abyss which yawns under their feet begins to cause them to think of pausing before they leap into it.

We can assure our readers that the Southern mind is sound on this question; and disunion is dead. It cannot now command a corporal's guard, compared with the hundreds of thousands of conservative hearts, who are determined to give it no countenance or support. Two months ago it had some strength. To-day it has none. The patient has been committed to the nursing of political quacks; and they have killed him with remedies the educated world condemn. The patient dies, but the country survives."

DESPERATE AND FATAL DUEL.—A desperate and fatal duel was fought in St. Landry Parish, near Opelousas, La., on the 6th inst., between Messrs. ALPHONSE BIENVENUE, deputy sheriff, and GIRARD FOURNET, which ended in the almost immediate death of Mr. FOURNET. From the Courier, of that town, we take the following particulars:

"The particulars of the fight are enough to make us shudder, when we recollect that two gentlemen consented to go upon the field of honor, with such conditions as made it necessary for one, or both of them, there to lose their lives. However, in the present instance, death alone could end the rencounter. Each of the combatants went upon the field, armed with two revolvers and a bowie-knife; they were stationed twenty paces apart, with instructions, at the word, to fire and advance at will—the fight to end with the death of one, or both the parties. At the second fire, Mr. Fournet, having been struck, staggered and fell, but not without retaining both strength and courage enough to fire twice more upon his adversary, but without effect. We know not the cause of the difficulty. They were both brave and true men, and behaved gallantly to the last."

AN OUTRAGE IN BALTIMORE.—The Baltimore Patriot, of Monday, details the following transaction, which it entitles "The way to make votes for LINCOLN and HAMLIN:"

"Some time during last night, some person or persons forced an entrance into Independence Hall, the Republican Head-Quarters, at the corner of Gay and Fayette streets, and committed outrages disgraceful to our city, and the age in which we live. The records were mutilated, and the contents of the ink-stands emptied thereon. A number of the photographs of Mr. Lincoln were torn into shreds, and the United States flag, bearing the names of Lincoln and Hamlin, seems to have been specially odious, as it was taken from the wall, cut into pieces, and scattered over the floor. This is only the second time in the history of the Republic that the flag of our country has been thus desecrated. A number of Wide-Awake caps and capes were also destroyed. As the Lincoln Party in our city now numbers several thousand of our citizens, the most of whom will compare favorably with the same number of either of the political parties, for their devotion to the Union and the Constitution and enforcement of the laws, it is passing strange that they cannot be permitted to enjoy their constitutional right peaceably to assemble. This act of vandalism will be like Hudibras' gun, and increase the vote of Mr. Lincoln on the 6th of November."

How New York Sells Dry Goods.

New York Correspondence of the Boston Post.

Claflin, Mellen & Co. are the heaviest dealers in merchandize in New York—their yearly business exceeds that of Stewart by some three millions of dollars.—Their aggregate sales swell up to the enormous figure of eleven millions annually.—The per centage of nett profits on this amount is, however, small, but even at eight per cent., the sum of one hundred and eighty thousand dollars must find its way into the private bank accounts of the several partners. Next, in the amount of annual sales, comes the establishment of A. T. Stewart & Co. They sell eight millions a year, of which two and a half millions are disposed of at retail, and the remainder at wholesale.—$300,000 worth of gloves are alone handled by this house. No paltry per centage is assessed upon buyers at the Broadway marble palace. The class of goods sold is always such as bears a high price and a large profit. I happen to know of one instance where a twentieth share netted one of the partners $60,000 in a single year, which proves the profits of that year to have been $1,200,000. One million dollars a year will be about the margin of excess over all expenditures.—Next in the same line come the houses of Lord & Taylor, and Arnold, Constable & Co., the former of which does a business, in several stores, of six millions annually, at a profit of some $800,000, while the latter firm enjoys a regular, unchanging trade of about four and a half or five millions, which pays a yearly profit of not far from $600,000.

Of houses in the dry goods trade, whose yearly trade ranges from five to seven millions, there are several, as, for instance, C. & J. T. Moore & Co., Phelps, Bliss & Co., and S. B. Chittenden & Co. Their profits foot up variously from two to four hundred thousand dollars. J. B. Jaffray & Sons, our leading lace house, sell enough of that strictly female fabric to net them $600,000 a year profit. Some of the Boston branches located here exceed in their sales five millions yearly. Such as A. Lawrence & Co., J. W. Paige & Co., and A. Skinner & Co. The first named firm, as every one knows, sell some ten million dollars worth of domestic fabrics per year. The profits of all these commission houses are only from one to two per cent. upon the sales. Garner & Co., a commission firm, sell between eight and nine millions per year, at paying rates; while of those doing a dry goods commission business of from three to four millions, may be named Hoyt, Spragues & Co., Low, Harryman & Co., and Hunt, Tillinghast & Co. Their profits overleap a hundred thousand dollars a year. There are several French and English importing houses, whose sales overrun into millions, and whose profits are a fortune every year.

GUERNSEY'S BALM!

THE RAILROAD WAR!

Judge Miller vs. the Supreme Court!

CAN'T FIGHT ON AN EMPTY STOMACH.

THE PRESS ON THOMSON'S EATING HOUSE.

THE POPULAR EATING HOUSE, AND the best known one all over the State is Thomson's, at Hartford, on the La Crosse Railroad. We don't know where a better lunch can be had at a fairer price. Just a quarter, and Thomson's face, of itself, is worth more to look at, in these glum times, than a week's board at an ordinary hotel.—Green Bay Advocate.

We are informed that travelers on the Milwaukee & Minnesota are unanimous in their expressions of delight at Thomson's "Hartford Coffee House," and well they may be. Thomson is one of those fellows who, to be appreciated must be known, and the best way to know him is to stop and try his viands. He generally keeps the best, as the North-West will testify.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

HARTFORD COFFEE HOUSE.—People traveling upon the Milwaukee & Minnesota R. R., who neglect to stop into Thomson's Coffee House at Hartford, and get a biscuit, a couple of regular "Shanghai" eggs, a dough-nut and piece of pie, lose a great deal more than the "quarter" they have to pay for all these eatables. Thomson keeps everything in nice order and is always glad to see his friends.—Portage City Record.

THOMSON'S EATING HOUSE, HARTFORD.—The Kilbourn City Mirror says what is true in the following: "Just the place for breakfast or dinner when one is going to Milwaukee. We tried it one day last week, and, good as the dinner was, we are going to give the proprietor a puff worth three of it. To tell it in short, the warm biscuit, the fried cakes, the eggs, the pound cake, the butter, the pie, the coffee, and all the other nice things couldn't be beat in this State, or any of the other thirty-two that form this American Union—and all for the trifling sum of twenty five cents."—Daily Wisconsin.

THE HARTFORD COFFEE HOUSE.—We have always noticed that travelers on the Milwaukee & Minnesota railroad are anxious for the train upon which they are riding to arrive at Hartford station. The reason is now plainly evident to us, since we have ascertained that Thomson has a Coffee House there, where that fragrant beverage can be obtained in all its strength, richness and aromatic flavor, together with all necessary accompaniments. Thomson knows well how to do the thing up, and always succeeds in pleasing his customers; hence the reason he enjoys so large a run of custom.—Milwaukee News.

THOMSON'S EATING HOUSE.—At Hartford, on the La Crosse and Milwaukee R. R., lives the jolliest, best natured, broadest faced, loudest laughing, best feeling, coolest talking man in the business. His name is Thomson. He dispenses pies and cakes and boiled hen fruits, and doughnuts, and clear coffee, and chickens, and lots of such stuff, to the hungry passengers. His price for all a man can eat is but two shillings, and he who calleth not at Thomson's knoweth not how to prolong his life, or to enjoy the luxuries of this world.—La Crosse Union & Democrat.

Boots and Shoes.

Dealers in Boots and Shoes.
THE CELEBRATED COPPER TOE!
WADSWORTH & WELLS,
WHOLESALE DEALERS IN
Boots and Shoes,
60. LAKE STREET, CHICAGO. 60.

WE OWN THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT for the sale of MITCHELL'S PATENT METALLIC TIPPED BOOTS AND SHOES, for and within the States of Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota, and hereby give notice that all parties dealing in these goods within the above States, without having first arranged with us and by our consent, are and will be direct infringers upon our EXCLUSIVE rights, and that as soon as we are advised of any infringement, shall demand proper and immediate redress.

We have made extensive arrangements with the most celebrated manufacturers, whereby we can fully supply the increasing demand with the best qualities of these Tipped Boots and Shoes from our store in Chicago, each pair of which will be stamped and labeled with our name.

We shall recognize no Tipped goods within either the above States, but such are thus stamped and supplied by us.

We will warrant in all instances one pair of child's copper-tipped shoes to out wear two and oftentimes three or four pairs of equal quality without tips, as can be shown by very many testimonials, while the expense is but a trifle more, making an actual average saving to the consumer of near two hundred ℔ cent.

Merchants and dealers in Boots and Shoes within the above States, can also find these Metallic Tipped Boots and Shoes, supplied and properly stamped by Wadsworth & Wells, for sale by ATKINS, STEELE & WHITE, and BRADLEY & METCALF, Milwaukee. sept22i769dawly WADSWORTH & WELLS.

LET NOT DISEASE, WITH ITS fangs, prey upon you, until the cold hand of death hurls you to an untimely grave. Shake off the feeling of despair and hopelessness, so liable to come upon the invalid. The plant born of the Sun we place within the reach of all. We care not what may be the specific order of the disease. The cause, the fountain of the disease itself, is impure blood, and through the different channels of the lungs, stomach and the vital organs, JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will pass, mingling with the blood, search out and grasp and then expel, all hurtful poison that there is in it. Thus cleanse the blood by a few doses of these Pills, and disease in any form, will dissipate and vanish. As the Sun with its glorious beams first causes the morning dew to rise as mist, then growing stronger casts his burning rays upon it—and behold 'tis gone so cleanse the blood, and disease, like morning dew, retreats and vanishes. A Victim of the Lady Elgin.

WILLIAM COOPER POMEROY, 16 years of age, son of F. C. and STELLA WOOLSON POMEROY, to whom the following lines refer, was one of the victims on the ill-fated Elgin. For nearly 12 hours he supported his little companion, WILLIE BARRY, upon the raft, clinging to his body between two and three hours after life was extinct, when it was torn from him by the waves.—All who knew him bear testimony to his noble virtues and manly worth. He was one of the few of whom it may be said,

> "None knew him but to love him,
> None named him but to praise."

Oh lake, thou'st held in death the boy,
Whose presence fill'd my cup with joy;
Thy white foam wreath'd his lovely clay,
When my fond hand was far away.
'Twas thine to wrap thy cold, cold wave
Round him I'd given my life to save;
'Twas thine to list his dying sigh,
When angels bore his soul on high.

'Twas thine, oh lake, to bathe the brow
My fond lips prest in joy till now;
'Twas thine, those full blue eyes to close,
Whose beaming brought my heart repose.
Methinks thy heavings were in woe,
That hearts thro' thee such grief should know;
And thy mad howlings were in pain,
At fireside hopes thy waves had slain.

From out our fireside home and heart,
His love-light never can depart,
Earth hath no joy, to break the spell,
Wrought out by him we've loved so well.
His graceful beauty all could see,
But oh, how radiant 'twas to me;
Who knew him, steadfast, brave, and kind,
Polished, by christian love refined.

His mind was clear, of manhood power,
His heart seemed tender woman's dowert
So joyous, gen'rous, wise and just,
So fond in friendship, firm in trust;
'Twas bliss to me each day to know,
All true, "If WILLIE told me so."
His death upon the watery main,
Served but to make his whole life plain.

The while I looked for manhood's hour,
In all its high and holy power,
I prayed life ne'er might tarnish him,
Or blight his soul with willful sin;
I prayed he ne'er might be less fair,
His death is but my answered prayer;
His ripened soul hath entered rest,
Than earth, for him, how much more blest.

Earth's joy has faded from life's cup,
Earth's sun in cloud is covered up;
My morn of hope, ere noon, is night,
My heart bows down before this blight,
My WILLIE, darling, went on high,
Lest I'd forget "I, too, must die."
Yet Faith still whispers "Jesus 's nigh,"
And bids me look beyond the sky.

This Gilead balm, my soul doth bind,
To bear this cross with willing mind,
And seek to praise Him in my song,
Who spared such gift to me so long;
When he was near my faith seemed bright,
But now I fear I walked by sight,
I'll seek anew for faith and prayer,
Till I am called to meet him there.

VIDOCQ;

Or, The Charcoal Burner of Rouen.

A THRILLING SKETCH.

Not many miles from the city of Rouen, in France, is located a wild and somewhat extensive forest. This wood is chiefly inhabited by charcoal burners; and many are the dark legends in which they figure. Of course the tales are mostly exaggerated, and in some cases have no foundation at all.—During the year 183-, however, several travelers, whose way lay through this forest, mysteriously disappeared. The whole place was scoured, and the inhabitants vigorously examined, but no clue was obtained; and they were dismissed. For several months after this, no more travelers were missed, and finally the public excitement was allayed. It is at this time that the incidents related in this sketch occurred.

It was a fine morning in autumn, and the woods presented a beautiful appearance. The birds were gaily singing, and the rays of an afternoon sun, not too warm, were gilding the tree tops. In the very heart of the forest, surrounded by the heaps of smoking earth, stood one of these burners. He was a splendid specimen of a man, as far as physical proportions went; fully six feet in height, and stout in proportion. His broad shoulders might have contained the strength of a hercules. His head was large and covered with a shaggy mass of hair, and his features were decidedly repulsive. His eyes were small and nearly covered with bushy eyebrows. He had altogether a cruel and malevolent appearance.

As we introduce him to the reader he was leaning upon a large axe, apparently in a listening position. The road ran by a place where he was standing, but he could not see far along it, on account of a sudden turn a little distance from him. The clatter of horse's hoofs, however, could be plainly heard and in a few minutes horse and rider came into sight. The new comer was a small and active looking man, and from his dress was apparently a gentleman well off. His eyes were unusually keen and searching, and were bent upon the charcoal burner in such a manner that the latter completely quailed before him.

"A fair day, my good man," said the horseman, in the easy manner of one speaking to his inferior.

"Exactly, Monsieur, for one of my trade; I love not the broiling suns of summer, nor the bleak winds of winter."

"Since you are so nicely suited, I suppose you must be what few men in the world are—happy."

"You say truly, Monsieur—few, few, indeed, are truly happy. There is no happiness without contentment."

"And are you content?"

"At times I think I am; but when I see the nobleman riding by in a coach and four, rolling in riches, with servants to obey his every wish, and I having to toil hard for my daily bread, I cannot help thinking that God is sometimes unjust."

"And do you never think of appropriating any of these superfluous riches?"

"What does Monsieur mean? I trust no thoughts of disobeying the laws of God and man alike, ever enter my mind."

"I meant nothing; it was merely an idle question; but I did not stop to talk thus, but to ask the way to P——. It is getting late and I must be on the move."

"If Monsieur is in a hurry, I can direct him to P——, in about half the time."

"I shall be much obliged to you, my friend."

"This lane begins very near my home; which is about a half a mile further on. You had better stop there, as my wife can point it out to you."

"I will do so. Here is a reward," exclaimed the horseman, offering him a piece of gold. The other drew back, and refused to take it, alleging that he had done nothing to deserve it. The horseman then put spurs to his horse and rode away, a bend in in the road soon hiding him from sight.—Having rode on until he imagined that the sound of his horse's hoofs could not be heard by the charcoal burner, should the latter be listening, he dismounted and silently retraced his steps. He arrived at the place where he had left his friend, the charcoal burner, but the latter was not to be seen. The stranger hastened back to his horse and remounted.

"It is as I expected," he muttered. This road makes a large bend here, and by cutting across, he can reach his hut before me. I care little, though, as "forearmed." We shall see who'll come out first. I comprehend why he refused my gold piece; he considers it as his own, and thinks he may as well take altogether; but I must hurry on, and finish this business before nightfall."

So saying, he put spurs to his horse and rode. Ten minutes sharp riding brought the charcoal burner's cabin in view. As he first caught sight of it, he thought he detected a man's face pressed against one of the windows. Of this, however, he could not be certain, as the face, if such it was, instanty disappeared. At the sound of the horse's hoofs, an old woman appeared at the doorway, and gazing curiously at him, waited until he rode up. The horseman could not help thinking that the woman was a most fitting companion for her husband. The expression on her countenance was even more villainous. The stranger, however, did not stop to criticise her appearance, but courteously saluted her, saying—

"I believe, Madam, that you are the wife of a charcoal burner, whom I met up the road."

The woman replied in the affirmative.

"Then I will tell you that I am bound for P——, which I wish to reach before nightfall. He told me of a lane which was much shorter than the regular road, which he said you could point out to me."

"Certainly! If this is all Monsieur wishes, he is easily satisfied. You may see, a little way up, that large tree which towers above the rest. Just beyond that large rock, and the lane enters the road on the other side of it. As it is very narrow and nearly grown up with bushes, you would hardly notice it. But with these directions you can hardly fail."

"Never you fear; I shall not miss the road."

"Is that all that Monsieur wishes?"

"I believe so; but stop a minute. I offered your husband a piece of gold, but he refused to take it. Perhaps you may be more sensible."

The old woman greedily took the proffered coin, saying:

"Pierre is too sensitive. We might both starve before he would take a cent."

"I see you differ from him a little, "returned the horseman, laughing. He then put spurs to his horse, and rode on. In a few minutes he reached the large rock alluded to, and could then perceive the entrance to a narrow lane, artfully concealed by bushes. He soon made his way through them, and when once into the lane found it a little wider than he expected. He stopped a moment to examine the priming of his pistols muttering:

"My worthy friends are rather sharp. They do not do their murdering in the open road where spilled blood might lead to their detection, but inveigle the unfortunate traveler into the dark lane, where he may be safely put out of the way and none be the wiser for it. At any rate I am fully prepared for them, and they will not put me out of the way without a struggle."

Having seen that his arms were ready for use, he rode slowly forward, keeping a careful watch on each sides of the road, that he might not be surprised. As long as the woods kept open as they were, he had no fear, as there was no good hiding place for a man. Ere long the woods began to get thicker and more sombre. Little hillocks covered with bushes became frequent, until at last they became a long range skirting each side of the road. The horseman felt that the time which was to try him was near at hand, and he dropped the reins until his hand covered a holster pistol, which he firmly grasbed, though in such a manner as a person would not notice, and he then assumed an air of carelessness, though his watch was now keener than ever. At length he came to a place which he felt certain contained an enemy. Nature seemed to have adapted this place for the purpose of concealment. The rocks which skirted the road at this place were about breast high, and so perpendicular as to have the appearance of a wall; they were covered with a growth of bushes so thick, as to be nearly impervious. The tall trees on each side of the road, twined their tops together, forming a natural roof of leaves and branches, and rendering the place as dark and dismal as midnight.

It was indeed a scene sufficient to appall the stoutest heart, but the horseman, altho' he knew that the next moment might be his last, rode forward with as careless an air as he might have worn had he been traveling the streets of a populous city. His hand still grasped the butt of a pistol, and his keen eye still searched each covert. Suddenly a pistol shot rang out upon the air, and his hat fell to the ground with a bullet hole through it, not more than an inch above where his head had been. Instantly turning in the direction of the sound, he beheld a slight wreath of smoke curling up from behind a bush, and without a moment's hesitation he leveled his pistol and fired. The aim was terribly fatal. A wild shriek rang upon the air, and the next moment there sprang from behind the tree, not the charcoal burner, as he had expected, but his wife. The blood was flowing copiously from her forehead, and she presented a horrible spectacle. She tottered to the edge of the wall of rocks and fell into the road a corpse.

"Had I known it to be a woman," the horseman muttered, "I never would have fired. But it is too late to moralize. What can have become of my friend the charcoal burner?"

As he spoke he turned around quickly and encountered the objects of his thoughts. It was lucky for him that he was so quick. The charcoal burner held a gleaming knife in his hand, already uplifted ready to strike. While the horseman's attention had been engaged by the tragical end of the women, he had silently crept up behind him. The would be assassin, sprang forward, making a desperate pass at his breast. The horseman still held the discharged pistol in his hand, and with its long barrel managed to parry the blow.

He then buried his spurs deep into his horses sides, and the goaded beast sprang forward so violently as to dash the charcoal burner to the ground, and completely sprang over him, dashing the knife from his hand, leaving him stunned in the middle of the road. The horseman turned instantly, and drawing his remaining pistol from his holster, waited for the other to rise. The latter staggered to his feet, and leaning against the rocks on the side of the road, gazed sullenly and revengefully on his conqueror. Thus the strange couple regarded each other for some time, until at last the horseman broke the silence.

"So, my friend," he said, "your career is ended at last."

"Yes! curse you! I'd rend you asunder too, if ——"

"You dared, I presume," put in the stranger.

"I doubt not your good intentions, and can only thank heaven that you have not a power proportionate to your will, but I am doubly thankful that I have been the means of ridding the earth of such a monster. I presume you can give a pretty good account of those mysterious disappearances of late?"

"Aye, that I can! You are the first richly freighted traveler who has entered that lane and escaped the bullet or knife."

"Pshaw! do you take me for one of those simpletons whose purses are better filled than their heads?"

"No!" exclaimed the other with sudden energy. "I know better. From the very first you seemed to have read my every intention, and you must have been sent expressly to entrap me. In other words you are a detective in disguise."

"You are right," was the reply.

"Well, you have come out best, but you have played a desperate game. Few would have escaped as you have, for my wife is a good shot. But you seemed from the first to be fortune's favorite."

"I certainly had a narrow escape," returned the other, pointing to the bullet hole in his hat.

"But is not the first time that fortune has proved friendly to me."

"Well, who are you?" at length demanded the other.

"My name is Vidocq!"

"Great heavens! the Parisian detective! I might have known that it would be all up with me when you were pitted against me."

"Yes; business at the metropolis being rather dull, and having heard some rumors of your doings, I thought I would take a trip out here, if only for the good of my health. But it is growing late, and you must be moving."

"Where must I go?"

"To the gallows, in the end," was the cool reply; "but at present to the jail at P——."

"To the gallows!" returned the other fiercely. "Never; any death but that!"

The detective leveled his pistol at the charcoal burner's head, exclaiming:

"You shall have a bullet through your head if you prefer it!"

The other ducked his head in expectation of the shot, and then made a desperate spring at the detective. The latter, however, was in no hurry to fire, and coolly awaited the other's attack. The charcoal burner grasped the reins with his left hand, and with his right endeavored to grasp the pistol. The detective, however, caught his right hand with his own left, and holding it up with an iron grasp, passed his right hand under, until his pistol pressed against the other's forehead, when he fired. The other instantly relaxed his hold, and with a terrible cry, fell back a corpse.

The detective, having accomplished the purpose of his visit, did not delay his return to Paris, but having explained the whole affair to the proper authorities at P——, he departed.

And thus was the earth rid of two as great monsters in human form as ever lived.

Medical.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt-rheum.

Five or eight bottles will cure the worst cases of scrofula.

One or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of dyspepsia. I know from the experience of thousands that it has been caused by a canker in the stomach.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure sick headache.

One or two bottles are warranted to regulate a costive state of the bowels.

One or two bottles will regulate all derangement of the kidneys.

Four to six bottles has cured the worst cases of dropsy.

By strictly following the directions in the pamphlet around each bottle, and a judicious application of the

SALT RHEUM OINTMENT, SCROFULA OINTMENT and HEALING OINTMENT, every sore and ulcer, of whatever kind or nature, except cancer, that has taken root, is perfectly and permanently cured.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

Nursing Sore Mouth

In the more advanced stages of

Canker

It extends to the stomach, ensuing

Dyspepsia

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Kidneys

Your stomach is

Raw and Inflamed,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

Cure;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the Piles.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly, DONALD KENNEDY.

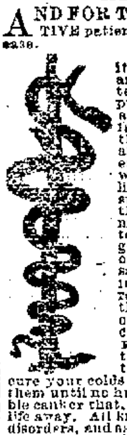
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Influenza, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Incipient Consumption,

AND FOR THE RELIEF OF CONSUMPTIVE patients in advanced stages of the disease.



We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town and almost every hamlet of the United States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities anywhere which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil, to produce it the most perfect possible and thus afford to those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrative properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Sold by JOHN RICE, Milwaukee, J. H. REED & CO., Chicago, and Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere. oct15d&w3mo

Medical.

MOFFAT'S

Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters!

THESE MEDICINES HAVE NOW been before the public for a period of THIRTY YEARS, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the Globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES

Are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss of Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill-Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these Medicines, was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing by the use of the LIFE MEDICINES alone.

FEVER AND AGUE.—For this scourge of the western country, these Medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure of these Medicines is permanent—TRY THEM, BE SATISFIED AND BE CURED.

BILIOUS FEVERS AND LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General Debility, Loss of Appetite, and Diseases of Females—the Medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description; King's Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painter's Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these Medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparations of Sarsaparilla.

It is not too Much to Say

SINCE ALL,

OLD AND YOUNG

Affirm its Truth,

VIZ: THAT PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE will preserve infallibly the growth and color of the hair, if used two or three times a week, to any imaginable age. Perfectly restore the gray, cover the bald with nature's own ornament, the hair; make it more soft and beautiful than any oil, and preserve the scalp free from all disease to the greatest age. Statesmen, Judges, Attorneys, Doctors, Clergymen, Professional men, and Gentlemen and Ladies of all classes, all over the world, bear testimony that we do not say too much in its favor. Read the following, and judge:

HICKORY GROVE, St. Charles Co., Mo., November 19, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Hair Restorative; we did so with little hope of success, but to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can, therefore, and do hereby recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are

Yours respectfully,
GEORGE W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINBOTHAM.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: My hair had, for several years, been becoming prematurely gray, accompanied by a harshness which rendered the constant application of oil necessary in dressing it. When I commenced using your Hair Restorative about two months ago it was in that condition; and having continued its use till within the last three weeks, it has been turned to its natural color, and assumed a softness and lustre greatly to be preferred to those produced by the application of oils or any other preparation I have ever used. I regard it as an indispensable article for every lady's toilet, whether to be used as a Hair Restorative or for the simple purpose of dressing or beautifying the hair. You have permission to refer to me all who entertain any doubt of its performing all that is claimed for it.

MRS. C. SYMONDS,
Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 18, 1857. 114 Third st.

WELLINGTON, Mo., Dec. 5, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: By the advice of a friend of mine, who had been using your Restorative, I was induced to try it. I had the fever, some time last May, and nearly every hair in my head came out. Now my hair has come in a great deal thicker than ever it was. Nothing but a duty and sympathy that I feel to communicate to others who are afflicted as I have been, would induce me to give this public acknowledgment of the benefit I have received from Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative.

Yours respectfully,
A. R. JACOBS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: Large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE CANADIAN.

FARTHER POINT, Oct. 26—3 P. M.

The steamship Canadian from Liverpool the 11th inst., passed here at 6:30 A. M., to-day en route to Quebec.

Her advices are one day later than by the City of Washington, off Cape Race.

The steamship Bremen from New York, arrived at Southampton on the 11th.

The English news is wholly unimportant.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times, says that private trustworthy accounts, from the Island of Sardinia, speak of the commencement of manœuvres by a secret agency there, in favor of annexation to France, in the same manner and by the same means as were employed by the French commissaries in Savoy, and Nice.

The Bourse on the 10th was very flat, and rentes descended to 68 and 50c.

From Naples no new movement is reported. Gen. Cialdini had received orders to cross the Neapolitan frontier, and decisive events were expected to occur at any moment.

Garibaldi was about to convoke the electoral college of the two Sicilies, to vote.

The Piedmontese corps d'armes will amount to 20,000 men.

Affairs in the Papal States are unchanged.

It was reported that Lamoricière had telegraphed to Marseilles to secure passage in the steamer for Civita Vecchia, for himself and three officers.

The Sardinian chambers were debating the law of annexation, and a vote was expected to be taken on the 11th.

It was reported that Russia was about to call her ambassador from Turin.

Advices from Rome confirm the statement that the French would occupy Viterbo.

The Pontifical Gen. d'Armes precedes the French by twenty hours. The inhabitants are prepared to repulse them, but to yield to the French Marquis.

Dappoli had proceeded to Viterbo to reassure the inhabitants that Victor Emanuel was at Macerata.

The statement is confirmed that Spain had proposed a Congress of the Catholic Powers at Gaeta, in Austria.

An extraordinary credit had been granted to the Naval Department for the construction of naval batteries, to defend the entrance of ports.

Since the departure of Fuad Pasha from Syria, the Musselmen had re-commenced the massacre, and killed twenty Christians. The remaining Christians were emigrating to Latakia. The Musselmen were furious against them, and had threatened the life of the Russian Consul.

LATEST, VIA QUEENSTOWN.—It was reported that the French army at Rome was to be increased to 60,000 men, and the garrison at Lyons was to be put on a complete war footing.

Railroad Meeting.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26—3 P. M.

The delegates to the time-table convention assembled here last night, and appointed a committee of sixteen to prepare and submit a time-table to the convention; after which the convention adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Additional by the Canadian.

FARTHER POINT, Oct. 26—9 P. M.

ITALY.—The new pro-Dictator of Ciaplis, as soon as he was appointed, addressed a letter to Massini, complimenting him on his patriotism, but asking him to give a proof of it by leaving the country, telling him that even without intending it, he caused disunion; that many used his name with a political intention of hoisting another banner in Italy.

There is a probability of a Congress on the affairs of Italy.

The Daily News correspondence of Claplis, says an Italian has been killed, whose anxiety for the result of the battle of Volterino led him too far in advance, and he was unfortunately shot. His funeral services have been performed in all the churches of Rome for Gen. Peinonda. Gen. Guyon was present at the French church of St. Louis.

The Post Paris correspondent telegraphs that no protest in a diplomatic sense has been made by Prussia, Austria and Russia, against the entry of the Sardinian troops into the Neapolitan territory.

AUSTRIA—The Paris correspondent of the Times, remarks that a movement of the Austrian trains need not take persons by surprise. Austria considers herself relieved from all obligations contracted with the French Emperor, and has good reasons to know that that Government is bent on exterminating her; has prepared and brought to maturity plans, for an insurrectionary movement her provinces.

A private letter Turin announces that a large armament had been ordered by the Piedmontese Government, and the day before the Sardinian minister's departure from Paris, a supply of 50,000 muskets and 1,100,000 percussion caps was dispatched by the French Government to its ally.

SARDINIA AND NAPLES—The Constitutionel contains an article signed by M. Boniface. He says that it does not belong to any foreign State, no more to Sardinia than Austria, to intervene in Naples and Sicily between the invasion of Garibaldi and Sardinia. There is a great difference. Garibaldi came to raise and direct a revolution in the interior with his band. He would only communicate to them a proper spirit in their struggle against an unpopular Government. The Sardinian invasion constitutes a direct intervention of one regularly constituted State in the affairs of another independent State. Strange to say, the Sardinian invasion took place without any declaration of war, the representatives of the King of Naples being still at Turin. By the entrance of the Piedmontise troops into the Roman Saates, Sardinia has violated the principles of the new treaty.

Count Cavour gave it to be understood that the entry of Sardinian troops into the States of the Church was principally directed against the influence of Garibaldi. Now, on the contrary, it has became evident that they go to aid him.

M. Boniface deplores the conduct of the Sardinians.

The Patrie says that Garibaldi had thanked the seamen of the English ship Renown, who saved the Garibaldian flag on the 1st inst.

The Piedmontese troops were expected before Capua on the 15th inst. It was anticipated that the Neapolitans would evacuate the place before their arrival and retire to Gaeta.

Railroad Convention.

CINCINNATI, Oct 26—9 P. M.

The time table convention decided that eastern trains should leave here at 9:30 A. M. and 10:30 P. M., to commence November 19th.

The subject of difference between all railroad and water rates was discussed by the executive committee of western roads, and postponed for further conference at Columbus, on the 14th prox.

The convention was entertained to-day by Alfred Garther, Superintendent of Adams' Express, with a splendid dinner at the St. Charles Exchange, at which Messrs. Evans and Platt, English directors of the New York and Erie railroad were present. The proprietors of the Burnet House extend a similar courtesy to night.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—9 P. M.

The Democrats of the Eighth Congressional District have nominated Isaac C. Deleplaine, Messrs. Herrick and Cradford, the Tammany and Mozart candidates, having withdrawn.

MONETARY.

FRIDAY P. M., October 26, 1860.

The light shipments of the past two days, occasioned by a scarcity of vessels in port, have made Eastern Exchange rather scarce, and the rates to-day were very firm, the banks selling uniformly at 1 ℘ cent premium, and they were not disposed to make any concession from the current rate to dealers. Otherwise the market was quiet, and currency plenty.

CHICAGO MONEY MARKET.

The Press & Tribune of this morning says:

There was a good demand for currency to day by grain and provision dealers, and the offerings of Eastern exchange were more liberal, and the rates easy at ½@¾ ℘ cent premium on the street, and 1 ℘ cent at the bank. Since bankers refused to pay over ¾ ℘ cent in the morning, on account of the short supply of currency; but in the afternoon they paid ⅝ ℘ cent. There were more time bills on the East offering, and the rates of discount were steady.

NEW YORK MONEY MATTERS.

We have the following by telegraph from New York to-day, in reference to money and stocks:

Freights were unchanged, being nominally 17c by sail, and 18c by steam to Buffalo. The props. Chicago and Evergreen City were chartered at the latter rate, two vessels to load for Oswego at 23, and the sch' Fred Hill, for Cleveland, on private terms. The receipts at Chicago yesterday included: 8,519 bbls flour; 112,344 bus wheat; 30,080 bus corn; 6,694 bus oats; 2,809 rye; 7,581 bus barley. Shipments of wheat 93,767 bus. In reference to the market the Press & Tribune says:

The market opened steady, but under a good demand by shippers and speculators, as well as an improvement in New York, the market became much firmer, and prices advanced 1@1½c, and closed quiet but steady at the advance. About 125,000 bus were sold at 85c for Northwestern Club; 81½@83c for No. 1 Spring; 78@79½c for No. 2 do; and 70@71c for Rejected. The flour market was steady, but in consequence of the difficulty in procuring cars to ship East, buyers did not purchase as freely as they otherwise would have done. After the receipt of the New York news, too, holders were firmer, and this had some effect in limiting transactions. About 1,500 barrels changed hands, at $4,25@4,70 for medium to choice Spring extras. The corn market was very flat, and we note a decline of fully ½c ℘ bus—closing dull and heavy. About 20,000 bus were sold at 34½@35c for No. 1 in store; 33½@34c for No. 2; 30c for new No. 1; and 29c for new Rejected. Oats were also very dull, and the sales limited at 15½c for No. 1 afloat. Rye was in better request and about ½c higher, with sales in store at 49@49½c. There were considerable orders for barley from Pittsburgh and other points; but the difficulty in shipping, on account of a scarcity of cars, deterred buyers, and the market was inactive—sales being light at 40@60c by sample on track.—Timothy Seed was in good request and firm at $2,20@2,25. Flax Seed, $1,10@1,15. Highwines steady at 19@19½c. Alcohol, 40@42c.

Beef Cattle were more active to-day, the packers having purchased freely, and the market was steady at $2,25@3,12½ for fair to prime. Common cattle are dull and neglected. Hogs were more active and a shade better—sales ranging from $5@5,25.

Freights were firm to-day, but we cannot quote any improvement. The current rates were, wheat to Oswego, 28c by steam via Collingwood, and 22c by sail; wheat to Buffalo, 17c to load here, and 18c to load at Milwaukee; corn to Buffalo, 15½@16c by steam; wheat to Kingston, 18c in a B 2 vessel.

CINCINNATI MARKET, OCT. 24TH.

From the Gazette of Thursday morning:

There was a combination of unfavorable news to-day regarding breadstuffs. The foreign arrival, which had been awaited with a good deal of interest, brought advices of a decline in Liverpool. In New York there was a further reduction in the value of flour and wheat, with a falling off in the demand. Added to all this we have an advance of 5c in Eastern freights, which is to take place on the 1st of November. Extra round hoop Ohio flour has declined fully 25c ℘ bbl in New York within a week, closing to-day at $5,75. Deduct from this the all rail freight, which may now be calculated at $1,15, and we have only $4,60 left to pay the first cost in this market, with the shipping expenses additional to freight charges. Exporters, therefore, would hardly operate at over $4,50 for the Eastern markets. From New Orleans, however, the accounts are more encouraging, $5,75@5,85 being the quotations there yesterday; but that market being liable to sudden fluctuation, dealers do not care to operate upon those figures, with the odds against them at the East. This, and the fact that holders here ask $4,90@5 for superfine, accounts for the extreme dullness of our trade. The sales to day were hardly worth mentioning.

Wheat was also dull, at 1,04@1,06 for prime red, and 1,12@1,14 for white. Corn steady at 40@48 for old, and 32@35c for new. Oats dull at 30c. Mess pork was in fair demand at $17,57@18, with sales of 500 bbls at the inside and 300 bbls at the outside figure. The purchases were mostly for New York. In bacon there were sales of 100 hhds shoulders, mostly for Baltimore, at 8½c. Nothing doing in sides. There was a moderate business in hogs, the sales including 500 head for the last half of November at $6,62½ net, and 1,300 at $5,40 gross. Groceries steady at 8@9½c for sugar, 15@15½c for coffee, and 42@43c for molasses.

MARINE ITEMS.

A GOOD LOAD.

The D. & M. R'y Steamship Milwaukee took out 200 tons of freight, chiefly beef and flour, on her last trip to Grand Haven, and between 40 to 50 passengers.—The two steamers of this line have made their trips thus far the present fall with remarkable regularity, carrying full loads of freight each way, and they hope to be able to do the same all through the winter.

IN PORT.

The screw steamers Free State, Dacotah, and Nile, from Buffalo, the Susquehanna and Wisconsin, from Cleveland, and Young America, from Ogdensburgh, were all in our harbor yesterday, discharging merchandize, leaving better than half their cargoes here, the balance being for Chicago. The Susquehanna left 60 tons of Railroad iron at the La Crosse docks. The Dacotah had some 250 tons of general merchandize, but her arrival was not entered at the Custom House in time to get the list of goods she landed for to-day's paper.

CLEARED FROM BUFFALO.

The following vessels cleared from Buffalo for Milwaukee on the 23d and 24th: Propellers Wenona and Iowa; schooners Milwaukee Belle, Miami, A. Medbury, Jo Vilas, and Imperial. For Chicago: the same propeller; brig C. P. Blair; schooners Torrent, H. C. Winslow, White Squall, White Cloud, Conway, Cornelia, York State, International, Golden Harvest.

SHIPBUILDING.

The Cleveland shipyards have a fair prospect of reaping, during the approaching winter, the reward of their well-earned reputation. Already there is observable a busy air about the yards, and there are several important contracts yet expected.

Messrs. Peck & Masters have contracts for four vessels for Buffalo parties. The frame of one of these, a bark, is nearly completed, and the keel of another bark was laid yesterday.

Messrs Quayle & Martin are building an A 1 propeller for the Northern Transportation Co.—Cleveland Herald.

OF INTEREST TO DROVERS.

A decision of some interest to drovers has just been rendered in Westchester County, in a case against the Hudson River Railroad, for the value of two bullocks smothered in the cars in consequence of the grated window becoming broken and the conductor closing the tight door on the passage from Troy to New York. The cause had been tried in a lower court, and $100 damages decided, from which the road appealed, but the higher court sustained the original judgment, deciding that the printed formula of the drover's pass, in relation to his taking it and his freight at his own risk, was null, because the drover had never consented to such an agreement to release the road from any claim for damages.

TUNNEL OF THE N. Y. CENTRAL AT ROCHESTER.

A corps of engineers are now in this city, says the Rochester Union of Saturday, making the surveys and estimates for the N. Y. Central Railroad tunnel under the Erie Canal. It is designed to construct a double track through the tunnel, which will be a close arch all the way from Kent street to a point some distance west of the canal. The descent of grade will commence east of Sophia street, and the track will take a line westward from the northwest corner of Center Park, crossing Oak street at its intersection with Dean street. If favorable arrangements can be made with the owners of property, the work of construction will begin very soon.

When the tunnel is completed and the new track laid, the Buffalo and Niagara Falls cars will come in and go out that way. The present track of the Buffalo road, from Sophia street to the Western Depot, as it is called, will be abandoned, also the Niagara Falls track, from Brown to Lyell streets, including of course both bridges over the Erie Canal, and all the trestle work.

Before the final adoption of any plan, the President and Directors of the Company will be here, with the Superintendents and Engineers, to make a personal inspection of the ground, and to see what is proposed to be done.

ESTABLISHED IN 1847.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

I AM NOW SETTLED IN MY NEW store, corner of Wisconsin and Main Streets, (Young's Block) a few doors below the Post Office. I have taken this location because I think it preferable for the auction business to any other in the city. Thousands of people pass the corner where I now am, which pass no other in the city, for it is well known that every person goes to the Post Office. I call upon all who have any Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Furniture, or Apples, or anything whatever, that they want to dispose of at auction, to send it to my auction room. I will use all my energy to dispose of all goods consigned to me to the best advantage, and prompt returns will be made. I have been engaged in the auction business in this city for thirteen years, and I have tried to do what is right unto all.

I also continue my Land Agency business. My office is in the rear of my store, entrance on Main St. I will attend to all sales of Real Estate either at public or private sale. I will make exchange of real estate with all who want to exchange. Any who have goods to exchange for good real estate in the city or country, I can always get them up a good trade and some money with it; probably there was never a better time to invest in real estate than the present. Prices of lots in our city are very low; lands adjoining our city are exceedingly low, compared to prices four years ago; but these low prices will not last long, and it is generally believed by all who have lived as long in the West as I have, that next spring will see a sudden rise in real estate throughout this city and country.

This is the time to secure you a good homestead. Now is the time to make investments. I call upon all who have property to dispose of to leave a list of the same with me. I keep a register expressly for that purpose, which will be exposed to the inspection of all, from day to day. I shall keep myself posted in real estate, from day to day, as I have done for the last ten years, and will be happy to give information to all who may wish it.

Milwaukee Wisconsin

THE ATTENTION OF THE YOUNG men of Wisconsin in particular, and of the Western and North-western States generally, is respectfully called to the advantages which this Institution offers for the acquisition of a knowledge of

BOOK-KEEPING

And commercial pursuits generally. It is now in a flourishing condition, and is working under a CHARTER OF INCORPORATION. The rooms are large and commodious, and are fitted up in splendid style. On introducing the subject to the student, he is led carefully, step by step, through the fundamental and general features of the science; and when these are fully realized, he is required to embark into a career of general speculation and merchandising, framing and adjusting contracts, purchases, sales, &c., &c., making the necessary entries in the principal and auxiliary books, in precisely the same manner and order as they are made by the skillful Book-Keeper, in the counting-room of actual business.

Thus when the work is completed, the Student finds himself, not a mere theoretical, but a practical accountant, being fully conversant with every branch of this interesting and important science, as applied to General Mercantile, Wholesale, Retail, Commission, Importing, Exporting, Foreign and Domestic Shipping, Stocks Exchange, Banking, Manufacturing, Mining, Steamboating, Railroading and business of Compound or Company speculation, in each of which, he has met with adverse as well as prosperous operation.

The Ladies' Department is entirely separate and tastefully furnished.

TERMS.—For a full course of instruction, with the privilege of completing the same at any time, including penmanship thus affording a life Scholarship, $40.

R. to Cleveland, Dunkirk, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, via New York Central and New York and Erie Railroads to New York and Boston.

Persons going East will find this route by far the most desirable, both from the advantage in point of distance, variety and beauty of the country through which the roads pass, as well as the less frequent changes of cars, and the annoyance of re-checking baggage required by other routes.

Facilities for the transportation of Freight and Live Stock by this route, are unsurpassed. Rates as low as any other route, and with equal dispatch.

To Shippers of Freight

TO THE NORTH-WEST.

THE LA CROSSE & ST. PAUL

UNITED STATES MAIL PACKET LINE

Running only between LA CROSSE & ST. PAUL for the transmission of Passengers, Freight and Mails.

THE PACKET LINE IS COMPOSED of the Steam Packets

Favorite, Frank Steele, Winona, and Aeolian,

Acknowledged to be the best boats for the trade upon the Upper Mississippi, being of lighter draft than any now running.

This Line carries the United States Mail, and has not missed a daily connection since it was established, with the trains, either way, upon the La Crosse & Milwaukee Railroad.

Shippers from Milwaukee will see that this is the most reliable Line of Boats for Freights, as the lightness of draft enables them to make their trip without delay, while by any other route delays are unavoidable.

One of the above Boats will leave La Crosse every evening, on the arrival of the 1:55 P. M. train from Milwaukee, and returning arrive at La Crosse in season to connect with the Express Passenger train, which leaves at 8 A. M.
